

MORO

HEADS

The Moro History

Around 1100 A.D., during the Moors domination in Sicily, a beautiful Italian girl lived in seclusion, spending her days tending flowers on her balcony. One day, a young Moor passing by was captivated by her beauty and boldly entered her home to confess his love. Experiencing the power of love and desire for the first time, the girl was mesmerized and returned his affections, believing his promises of eternal devotion.

However, she soon discovered his betrayal: he intended to return to his homeland, to his wife and children. Heartbroken, with her dreams shattered and her reputation ruined, she was consumed by rage. That night, as he slept, she took her revenge by cutting off his head. The next morning, a new vase appeared on her balcony—a strikingly lifelike Moor’s head, filled with flowers.

Enchanted by its beauty, her neighbors, envious and intrigued, began crafting vases in the same shape. Till this day, these finely adorned “Teste di Moro” can be admired on Sicilian balconies—a timeless symbol and a clever warning to all men.

The Moro Heads embody the rich tradition of Sicilian ceramics, encapsulating nearly 1,000 years of stylistic evolution. These anthropomorphic masterpieces are crafted with strikingly realistic details, featuring colors and finishes executed with meticulous precision. Each Moro Head by Verus begins as a unique, hand-modeled masterpiece, which then serves as the basis for exclusive plaster casts. The clay is carefully hand-pressed into these molds, ensuring that every piece replicates the elegant features of the original model with exceptional precision.

Every decoration, application, and detail is meticulously handcrafted by skilled artisans trained in the renowned schools of Caltagirone. This expertise is particularly evident in the intricate acanthus leaves adorning each head and the delicate modeling of slip slurry to create mustaches, beards, and eyebrows. Vibrant colors, gold or platinum finishes, antique effects, and crackle glazes are just some of the technical elements that lend the Moro Heads by Verus for Abhika their unmistakable allure.

SECTION 1

Caltagirone Collection

Caltagirone, a charming ancient town in Sicily, is painted and built in the hues of its renowned clay. Its pottery is celebrated worldwide not only for the exceptional quality of its raw materials but also for the rich heritage of unique craftsmanship techniques. It was a natural choice to feature this enchanting location as the setting for this story.

Corals

The red coral, the Mediterranean's most precious treasure, can live for up to 500 years. Sadly, it is now on the brink of extinction. Our artisans in Caltagirone honor its beauty and significance by crafting hand-made coral branches to adorn our Moro Heads.

Ornato

Ornato is the traditional pattern adorning Moro Heads and tiles in Caltagirone. Dating back to the 7th century, it symbolizes the acanthus leaf, celebrated in Greek and Roman culture for its beauty, vitality, and resilience. This elegant motif adorned Corinthian capitals, portraying strength and aesthetic perfection.

Terra Collection

The new Terra Collection is designed to elevate your garden, bringing elegance to your outdoor space. Made with a special clay from Impruneta, a region in Tuscany, these pieces are built to withstand the elements year-round. Over time, the clay's soft color will lighten in the sun or develop a deeper gray tone if kept in the shade.

Classic Collection

It has been 10 years since we first launched the Moro Heads collection, and we can proudly say its success has been remarkable. So much so that many others have since introduced Moro Heads into their own collections. Today, this masterpiece of Italian craftsmanship has become an iconic symbol recognized worldwide.
